LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1465, as amended, Negrete McLeod. California State University: independent audit.

Existing law requires the Trustees of the California State University to ~~adhere to uniform accounting standards in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) for institutions of higher education. Existing law requires that the cost associated with the annual independent audit be funded from existing resources contract with one or more public accounting firms to conduct systemwide and individual campus annual financial statement and compliance audits, and further requires that each campus of the university be audited at least once every 2 years.~~ Existing law authorizes revenue received by the ~~Trustees of the California State University~~ trustees from extension programs, special session, and other self-supporting instructional programs to be transmitted to the Treasurer and deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the State University Continuing Education Revenue Fund. Existing law provides that these revenues may be pledged for the acquisition, construction, and improvement of facilities for extension programs, special session, and other self-supporting instructional programs.

This bill would require, as a part of the annual independent audit of the California State University, that there be a full accounting of the funds related to the California State University's continuing education program. The bill would require that this component of the audit indicate the ~~balance of every relevant fund at each campus of the California State University~~ total systemwide revenues and expenditures for continuing education programs during the audit year, indicate the current level of retained earnings for continuing education programs, and set forth how much revenue is generated from specified areas of continuing education. The bill would require that this component of the audit also include a detailed report on any continuing education revenues that have been used to support projects such as the acquisition, construction, and improvement of facilities for extension programs, special session, and other self-supporting instructional programs.
